6 UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DISTRICT OF WASHINGTON
7 AT SEATTLE

8 JAMES WILLIAMS,

9 Plaintiff,

10 v.

11 SERGEANT ROOS, et al.,

12 Defendants.

CASE NO. C18-46 RAJ-BAT

ORDER DENYING MOTION TO RETURN PLAINTIFF'S LEGAL EVIDENCE AND LEGAL RESEARCH MATERIAL

13 Plaintiff James Williams, a prisoner at Monroe Correctional Center, moves for the return
14 of his legal evidence over the past several years and lists 15 things he would like to have the 15 Court order the 19 defendants to do, including allowing him 40 hours of law library access per 16 week and showing him how to use the law library computer. Dkt. 30. The Court construes his
17 motion as one for a preliminary injunction and DENIES it without prejudice to renewing it at a
18 later date and with more specificity.

19 While plaintiff's § 1983 complaint refers to incidents that occurred from December 2017
20 to January 2018, his motion for a preliminary injunction refers almost entirely to his concerns
21 about how the prison system has treated him with regard to the many lawsuits he has brought
22 over the years. He has specified nowhere how any specific defendant has impeded his ability to
23 pursue his current case or to respond to defendants' pending motion to dismiss. His motion for a

1 preliminary injunction is therefore denied.

2 DATED this 21st day of June, 2018.
